Trust God and Move Forward

Issue XXXIII Spring Edition 2023

One of the most valuable things you can have in this life is a promise from God. "By which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature" (2 Pet. 1:4). The reason promises from God are "exceedingly great and precious" is because they are guarantees that, before our story is finished, God is going to visit us with His power and glory.

When God has not yet answered, we get discouraged all too easily with the fact that we haven't yet experienced our breakthrough. What we fail to fully appreciate is the amazing treasure that we actually possess, a promise from God.

The first thing I want to say to everyone who has a promise from God is this:

- Do everything in your power to keep your fingers wrapped around that promise! It's just too precious to lose.
- When holding to a promise for a long time, we're often tempted to lose heart and relinquish our hope. The reason it's so imperative to hold fervently to a promise is this: Not every promise is unconditional. Some promises must be carried tenaciously if we are to see their fulfillment. We see this truth in these verses:
  - That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. (Heb. 6:12).
  - And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart (Gal. 6:9).
  - Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise (Heb. 10:35-36).

Hold onto promise like a wide receiver holding onto a football. As he sets his eyes on the goal line, he says within himself, "No matter what happens, I must not let go of this football!" That's how intently we must resolve to hold fast to our confidence.

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Greetings Kingdom Readers!

It is good to give thanks unto the Lord and to sing of His praises; for He is good, and He is worthy to be praised! Well, here we are once again, with the Spring Issue of the Kingdom Newsletter and as always, we pray that it will be a blessing, an encouragement and uplifting to you.

I always ask the Lord for words to write in this newsletter and as I was sitting, I looked over at a book I have by the Former First Lady Michelle Obama entitled, "The Light We Carry". (I have only read a portion of the first chapter, and in that short reading it seems like a good book.) But when I saw the title, "The Light We Carry", I said to myself, I am not sure of what light she was talking about and it may be because I have not read the entire book yet, but I thought about the light we should be carrying. The Bible says in Matthew 5:16 "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." I just want to remind you to let your light shine. The world needs to see and to know that there is a God and that He came, He lived a holy life on earth and that He died for our sins so that we may have eternal life. So, remember to let your light so shine that the world will see that there is a difference as it written in Leviticus 10:10, "between holy and unholy, clean and unclean." Be as it says in I Corinthians 15:58, "Therefore, my beloved brethren be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. Remember to let you light shine!

Well, it is almost Springtime and before you know it, Summer will be here, which is my favorite season; time is moving on. As I have forestated at the beginning, we pray that this newsletter will be a blessing to you. Thanks to all the writers of each article, for without you, the newsletter would not be what it is. Should you have something that would like to add or to be added to the newsletter or maybe you would like to advertise something, please let us know.

Yet Working to Build the Kingdom,

Lady Brisco

As we are finishing the first phase of our building project, God has blessed us like he promised, and it's not over yet. Let us hold fast to the rest of the promise; we shall continue to build without a mortgage. Be encouraged and keep the faith.

MOTHER'S CORNER

I heard . . . .
Do what you can with what you have where you are.
There are people who have money and people who are rich.
Never argue with a fool, onlookers may not be able to tell the difference.
A fool has to say something, a wise person has something to say.
When a bitter woman takes over the house, the family she rules is doomed.
Wrinkles should indicate where the smiles have been.
I rather have a wise enemy than a stupid friend.
No medicine exists that cure hate.

LADIES OF EXCELLENCE

Wise Women Who Change the World

There are wise women like you who change the world. Women who make things happen and women who make a difference. There are women who make us smile and women who make things better simply by showing up. A woman of wit and wisdom who through strength and courage make it through. A woman of peace is a wise woman who understands that peace is more powerful than trying to prove a point. A wise woman understands the power of her words as well as her silence. A wise woman knows when to fight and when to stop a fight. A wise woman knows her own place and uses her faith to go places. A wise woman fears God, loves God, trust God and always seek God. A wise woman knows when to stay silent however, a wiser woman of faith knows that sometimes words can win the battle when all odds stand against her. "A wise woman builds her house, but the foolish pulls it down with her hands." Proverbs 14:1. She has amazing strength and with God in her life she is unstoppable.

A woman who is a prayer warrior understands that her prayers will move mountains. Women that believe in one another can survive anything. Women who believe in each other create armies that will win kingdoms and wars. There are women who change the world everyday a woman like you. So always remember that one woman can make a difference, but together we can shake the world.

You are one amazing Woman of God!

YOUTHFUL PERSPECTIVE

1 Corinthians 10:13 "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

God doesn't make mistakes. Even through the roughest of times, know there is a purpose for the trial and purpose for your life. Don't stop because it's hard, keep going! There is promise beyond the storm!

RECIPES TO TRY

Prep Time: 10 minutes    Cook Time: 15 minutes    Total Time: 25 Minutes    Yield: Makes 5 servings

Perfect shrimp scampi! It's deliciously saucy, perfectly rich and buttery and amazingly flavorful! This easy shrimp recipe can be made in under 30 minutes with no hassle or stress. Try it and step into garlicky lemon pasta dinner heaven.

Ingredients :

- 12 oz. linguine
- 1 ½ lbs extra large shrimp, peeled and deveined
- 3 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
- 3 tbsp unsalted butter
- 4 garlic cloves, minced (4 tsp)
- 1/2 cup dry white wine*
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1/8 tsp red pepper flakes (optional)
- 2 tbsp fresh lemon juice
- 1/4 cup chopped fresh parsley

Instructions:

1. Cook linguine according to package instructions. Reserve 1/4 cup pasta water before draining in case you'd like to thin the dish later.
2. Meanwhile, melt butter with olive oil in a 12-inch skillet just over medium heat. Add garlic and saute 1 - 2 minutes until just lightly golden (don't brown or it can taste bitter).
3. Add wine and simmer until reduced by half, about 2 - 3 minutes.
4. Add in shrimp in an even layer season with salt, pepper and red pepper flakes and cook until shrimp turn pink, about 1 1/2 - 2 minutes per side.
5. Stir in lemon juice and a parsley then toss shrimp and sauce with pasta. Thin with pasta water as needed. Serve immediately.

Notes:

- *Low-sodium chicken broth may be substituted.
- Shrimp can be also served with crusty fresh bread for dipping in sauce instead of pasta.

COUPLE'S MINISTRY

The Marriage Commitment

Trustee & Sister Nixon

A lot of thought goes into planning a wedding. Do you want it big or small, lavish or traditional. While there is nothing wrong with working hard to have a beautiful wedding, scripture offers a much higher view of marriage. Not only is marriage a celebration of our earthly love and commitment, but it also is a tangible picture of the relationship that Christ has with His church.

This means what happens in our homes, not only affects us, but it also affects our witness for Christ. That's a sobering thought. Paul calls this a mystery, and it is. Why would God choose to use something as imperfect as our marriages to reflect His image and to help people understand Christ's relationship with the church?

Christ came in humility, but our marriages are often filled with pride. Christ was a servant leader who suffered unjustly and gave up His rights, but we often fight to have things our way. Christ gave His life to offer us forgiveness, but forgiving our spouse is often the last thing we want to do. Yet God uses our imperfect attempts at marriage to teach us something about Christ's relationship with His church.

Even though Christ's church is an imperfect rebellious group, He loves it anyway. In fact, Romans 8:35-39 teaches that His love is so permanent that, "neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." Christ's love for us is unshakable, and the love we have for each other should be too.

Marriage is where the rubber hits the road in Christianity. If we are really forgiven, then we should be able to forgive. If we are really filled with his grace, then our homes should be grace filled. If we were really filled with His joy, then our homes should be joyful, even when facing hardships.

When people look at our marriages, they learn if what we say about Christ is actually true or not. When two Christians divorce, people are forced to wonder if forgiveness and grace are only words. Our marriages are not just about us, they're also our witness to a watching world.

TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH

7 Tips for Preventing and Managing Stress

Whether it's positive stress (like planning a wedding) or negative stress (such as getting laid off), everyone has felt the effects of stress at one point in their lives. Stress often manifests as physical symptoms, such as fatigue, headaches and muscle tension and can even lead to serious health issues, such as cardiovascular disease. In fact, 77 percent of Americans report that they experience physical symptoms as the result of stress. Additionally, 33 percent feel they are living with extreme stress and 48 percent blame stress for negatively impacting their personal and professional lives.

April is National Stress Awareness Month, and while stress is unavoidable for the vast majority of Americans, there are many ways to help prevent and manage it. Take a look at these seven tips for preventing and managing stress in your life.

Practice the Big Three

There is a reason that eating healthy, exercising and getting enough sleep always appear on prevention lists. These three habits are the cornerstone to a happy, healthy life and their impact on stress is no different.

Eating a diet full of fresh, whole foods helps the body combat stress naturally. It is also wise to avoid stimulants like caffeine, alcohol and nicotine that can amplify stress, interfere with sleep and worsen the effects stress has on the body.

Getting the recommended amount of exercise lowers blood pressure and provides a healthy outlet to relieve stress. Rhythmic exercise such as walking, jogging and swimming has proven to be especially effective. Aim for 30 minutes of moderate activity, five days a week.

There is a reason sleep deprivation is a form of torture. Not getting a proper amount of sleep makes it difficult to deal with stressful situations and can increase anxiety and depression. To establish a healthy sleeping routine, make sure to turn off all electronics at least 30 minutes prior to going to bed and try to establish a calming nighttime ritual, such as reading or meditating. This ritual will signal your mind to relax and prepare for a restful night's sleep.

Learn how to relax

Relaxing while stressed is no easy task. It is important to find what works best for you and what fits into your lifestyle. The easier it is to do, the more likely you are to stick with it. Meditation and deep breathing are great ways to feel more relaxed and are also easy to do just about anywhere. If you are looking for a good way to get started, try the 4-7-8 deep breathing technique. Inhale for four seconds, hold the breath for seven seconds, exhale for eight seconds. Continue for as long as you need to feel relaxed.

Put your feelings on paper

Have thoughts running through your head on repeat? Try writing them out. Getting the thoughts out of your mind and onto paper will signal your brain that the thought is safe and it no longer needs to hold onto it.

Be proactive

You are your own best advocate. If you are feeling overloaded and worn down, take a look at everything that is going on in your life and see if some things can take a backseat until you feel up to tackling them. Make a list of situations that could cause potential stress and then figure out which situations you can avoid or improve to manage the outcome.

Talk about your problems

Sometimes talking through a problem is all you need to work through a stressful situation. Confiding in a trusted friend or family member can go a long way in combating stress. A licensed professional can also provide helpful tools to help you positively process through stressful scenarios.

Do something you enjoy

Always wanted to take a cooking class? Considering an herb garden? Learning new skills and taking the time to do something you love creates an outlet to relieve stress. Don't be intimidated by the prospect of picking up something new - it can be as small as playing a 15 minute game of Solitaire. Just make sure it's something you enjoy to do.

Smile

It might feel silly, but simply smiling can help improve your mood. Laughing is also a great way to beat stress and is clinically proven to be good for your health. Take some time for a laugh break - watch a funny show/movie or find a funny video online and enjoy the instant mood lift!

For additional tips on dealing with stress, check out the following resources:

WebMD: Ways to Avoid Stress Centers for Disease Control and Prevention: Coping with Stress

In dealing with stress as is stated in the above article, we have to remember that we are children of the Most High God. We can depend on Him and trust Him and we can rely on His Word.

FIVE TIPS FOR A LIFETIME OF HEALTHY VISION

AMERICAN OPTOMETRIC ASSOCIATION (AOA) OFFERS SIGHT-SAVING TIPS

Every waking minute, your eyes are working hard to see the world around us. According to AOA's annual American Eye-Q® survey, 40 percent of Americans worry about losing their eyesight over their ability to walk or hear.

It's Easy to Incorporate Steps into Your Daily Routine to Protect Your Vision!

- 1

SCHEDULE YEARLY COMPREHENSIVE EXAMS
Seeing a doctor of optometry regularly will help keep you on the path to healthy eyes.

- 2

PROTECT AGAINST UV RAYS
No matter the season, it's important to wear sunglasses.

- 3

GIVE YOUR EYES A BREAK FROM DIGITAL DEVICE USE
Practice the 20/20/20 rule: every 20 minutes, take a 20 second break and look at something 20 feet away.

- 4

EAT YOUR GREENS!
Eat five servings of fruits and vegetables each day—particularly the leafy green variety.

- 5

PRACTICE SAFE WEAR & CARE OF CONTACT LENSES
Follow your optometrist's recommendations for use and wear – keep them clean!

To learn more about eye and vision health, or to find a nearby doctor of optometry, please visit www.aoa.org. ## SINGLE'S MINISTRY

Embrace the Gift

If you learn to really sit with being single and experiencing loneliness, embrace it for the gift that it is. Embrace the opportunity to get to know yourself, to learn how strong you really are, to depend only on you for your happiness. You will realize that a little loneliness goes a long way in creating patience, more spiritual growth, understanding and God's guidance. Remember God hears your prayer.

Psalms 34:4—Delight thyself also in the Lord and He shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

Sis. Shelly Gibbs

QUARTERLY REVIEW

2023 SHOE BOX DRIVE

Kingdom Church and Ministries participates in an annual Christmas event called the Shoe Box Drive. Church members will buy gifts or donate money for the purchase of gifts for youth in the community and place them in shoe boxes. This year, Elder Janice Prattis and Sis. Darlene Taylor distributed the gifts amongst schools in the City of Cambridge.

The schools that received gifts were Sandy Hill Elementary, Choptank Elementary, Maple Elementary, the Judy Center and Maces Lane Middle School. Thank you KCM for putting smiles on the faces of the children in Cambridge.
