We Are Not of This World

Issue XXXVI Winter Edition 2023

We have come to the close of another year. Time seems to be moving so fast. Matthew 24:22 says, "And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." So much is happening; someone made the statement "If Apostle Paul could see the Church, we would be getting a letter." Sometimes it looks like I stood still, and the world kept moving. I know none of what is going on now is a surprise to God, but to tell the truth, I am shocked, or should I say I am amazed to see the things that are going on in my lifetime. Maybe I should say, the church is accepting the things that are going on because we can't do anything about it. I was taught that silence is consent. In other words, if we don't preach against certain things, then we agree with them.

If you don't know right from wrong now, it's hard to tell the difference. I guess someone would tell me I should not be surprised because the Bible said that these things would happen. I do not think that we should beat people up with the Word, but I do believe that even in today we need to declare the Word in its totality. Not just a God of the next blessing, the God of our next miracle, the God of the next breakthrough, the God that wants you to be happy, the God that wants you carefree, but what about the God that wants you saved and sanctified and set apart from the world? What about the God who said He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. We DO NOT NEED THE POWER OF GOD TO DO AND TO BE WHAT WE WANT. We need His power to change and be according to His will.

Yes, God does love us, He loved us so much He died for us, that we would be transformed, and not conformed and not unto our image, but unto His image. (Romans 12:2) Kingdom, let's not forget who we are and who God has called us to be. (John 17:11, 14-15) We are constantly being reminded that even though we are in the world, we should not be of the world. John 11:16 states, "They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world."

Yours Because of Calvary,
Bishop Brisco

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Greetings Kingdom Readers!

Grace and peace be unto you! God is great and greatly to be praised.

Well, we are at in the last month of year 2023; God is good! God has blessed us and kept us in good health and strength. Thank God for His grace and His mercies towards us. God has truly been faithful to all of us! I believe in the last issue I said that the Lord is shorting the days for our sake, "The Elect of God" and for that reason Galatians 6:9 says, "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." So, keep pressing and keep living holy; for if you do, you will reap a great reward.

I trust that the articles in this Winter issue of the Kingdom News will bless and encourage you. I hope that you are sharing these newsletters with your family and friends so that they can be encouraged and blessed as well. I extend my gratitude to all the team leaders and to the writers for another year of contributing to the newsletter to make it what it is. As I always say, "without you there would not be a Kingdom Newsletter" and I mean that from my heart. So again, thank you!

It is now the Christmas Season! Let us enjoy this time with our family and be a blessing to someone else. Be safe and remember that "Jesus is the Reason for the Season!"

MERRY CHRISTMAS & HAVE A BLESSED & PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR!

Pastor Brisco is a fearless and watchful spiritual leader, having been prepared by God. We, too are prepared. We are prepared to follow the shepherd of this house, as he follows Christ. Just as Pastor Brisco is obedient to the will of God, the flock should be obedient to the will of God and follow the vision God has given to our leader. So let us continue to stay watchful and cry out loud the unfiltered words of God. Check your equipment for the battle as well as encourage your brothers and sisters in Christ. YOUTHFUL PERSPECTIVE

Train Up A Child

On September 7, 2023, I had the opportunity to send my youngest daughter off to kindergarten. As this was my second time being able to complete such an awesome responsibility, I couldn't help but to think about how different the world is now than it was back in 2006 when I took my eldest daughter to kindergarten.

Not just the world, but also myself. The mother, the person I was back then, is far different from the mother and person I have become in the present day. I reminisced on all the mistakes and the journey of life that my eldest daughter would partake with me. What was I teaching her I thought. How did it influence the person she is now at 22 years of age? But He said to me, "my grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." (2 Corinthians 12:9) By God's grace I must admit the eldest turned out pretty good considering what I taught her (what I showed her).

However, what is it that God is trying to teach me this second time at being a parent? While thinking about the legacy that I want to leave my children and the greatness that I wish to instill in them, I remembered a quote written by Rudyard Kipling. The quote read "No written word nor spoken plea can teach young minds what they should be. Not all the books on the shelves - but what the teachers are themselves". No longer are we living in a time where the old saying "Do as I say not as do" can be the example of which we raise our children.

It has become very clear that kids are imitating what they see. With the enhancement of technology and social media, our children are constantly being exposed to things that could be detrimental to their lives. I believe the example that we set for our children has to be loving, bold, forgiving, and consistent. So often I hear parents say that these are things that they didn't receive as a child. We are literally raising our children with unresolved trauma. If we don't make a conscious decision to heal from our own trauma, we will unconsciously pass trauma to our kids.

I pray daily for God to assist me with the right things to do and say when it comes to this second go round at parenting. What was spoken to me was this, Though I've given you grace and allowed you to parent once again; make no mistake, my grace is sufficient, and you'll need it in the end. But how can you train anyone if you are refusing the training that will heal you from all your sins.

MINISTER'S THOUGHTS

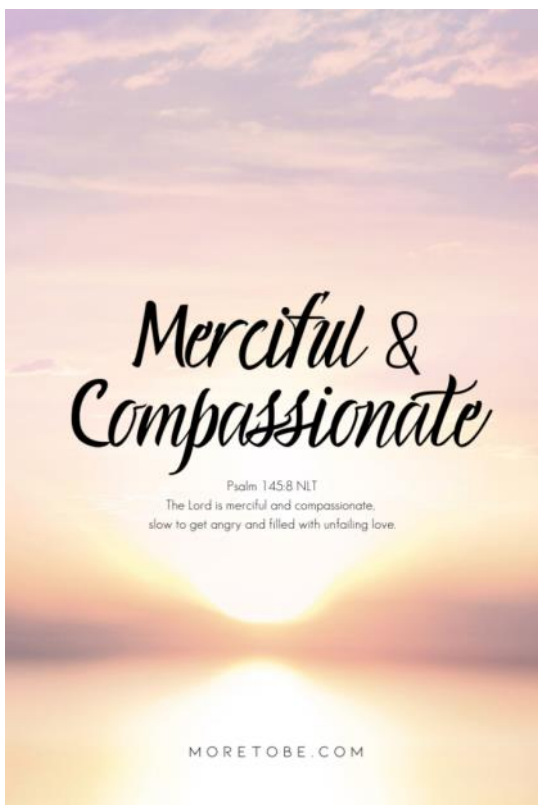

Our Compassionate God

My how this year has flown by. Thanksgiving and Christmas is almost here. As time keeps passing away so rapidly, we know that we have a compassionate God.

Our compassionate God knew from the beginning how He would reclaim His world from Genesis to Revelation. God's love is the key for our lives. If we have love for one another, then we can be each other's disciples. For there is faith, hope and love, but love is the greatest of all. Because of God's love the world is made better. He made us and wanted us to love one another. Some will never understand the love that God has for us. They don't know the compassion that He has for us. Only God can wash away our sins and present us as white as snow. God will forgive our sin and restore our broken hearts. He will not judge us and will supply all our needs. He sent His only Son to die for the whole world so that we may live and love one another. It was all about God's compassionate love that He has done so many wonderful things for us. John 3:16 states; "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that who soever believe in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." We have a wonderful compassionate God.

COUPLE'S MINISTRY

Marriage Maintenance

Marriage can sometimes feel like hard work. There are conflicts to resolve and differences to work around. There are times to get counseling and have difficult conversations, but often the maintenance of marriage is as easy as doing the simple things that build intimacy. It takes investing in little change in your marriage can result in significant changes in your relationship. We should begin to make changes right now that would make a big difference: Showing excitement and affection when you see your spouse. When he or she walks through the door, smile and maybe even walk over and give you a hug. A simple I Love you, or I'm thinking about you can cheer up your spouse and give a positive feeling in your marriage. Say Thank you. Your spouse likely does a lot for you, and you have taken it for granted over the years. When was the last time you said Thank you?

The longer you wait to invest in your marriage, the more likely it is that you will never get to experience all that God has and intended for your marriage to be. By Praying together and asking God to help you in making some small changes over time, and sticking to them, you will see a big difference in you, your spouse, and your marriage.

Mark 10:9 - What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

Thanksgiving Blessing

With your generous non-perishable and monetary donations, Kingdom Church was able to give away 19 Thanksgiving boxes this year to local families. Within the box, a family would have received a turkey or ham, stuffing, cornbread, mashed potatoes, macaroni and cheese, a Food Lion food package and various canned goods.

We may never see just how much our efforts has helped a family in need. We thank God that we are able to bless others as God has richly blessed us.

Keep up the great work KCM!

SINGLE'S MINISTRY

Killing Sin While You Are Single

Some Christian singles live lives of passivity. Sometimes there is little to no accountability in their lives, therefore secret sins survive and are corrupt. Some singles indulge in several types of immorality, they may spend their free time idly, rarely reading the Bible or praying. They pay little attention to the sin that still abounds in their heart. Do not put off the practice of watching and killing sins in your lives. The sins that entangle you as a single person will inevitably continue to entangle you in marriage. Nevertheless, singles should kill sin simply because you want to live happy and holy lives. Paul warns everyone, "That the wages of sin is death." (Romans 6:23). "And that we should be about the business of putting to death what is earthly in you." (Colossians 3:5) This command is not simply for singles, but for the married as well. If you do not kill sin now, it will kill you later unless you repent. This message is a warning to us all of the risk in putting off, for whatever reason, the "killing of sin."

The Ministry of Help

HELPING HANDS

The ministry of Help is important to the church for various reasons; spiritual growth, community outreach, fellowship and support, and crisis support. For spiritual growth through events such as Bible studies, prayer groups, and spiritual retreats, ministries can provide their members the chance to grow spiritually, deepen their faith, and participate in meaningful worship. Regarding community outreach, such as serving the larger community via volunteerism, and social outreach initiatives is the goal of many ministries, which enables the church to positively influence people who are not its immediate members. Fellowship and support include ministries frequently foster a sense of connection and community within the wider church. They give people a place to meet others who share their interests, exchange stories, and offer support to one another. For crisis support. Some ministries might be created with the intention of aiding in times of crisis, including sickness, bereavement, or other difficult life circumstances. They can offer consolation, prayer, and useful help to individuals who are in need.

My Confession of Faith

I am what God says I am.

I shall be blessed in my going out and my coming in.

I am not an afterthought of God, but a part of His Original Plan.

I was chosen in Him before the foundation of the world.

I am a vessel of righteousness, called out, washed thoroughly and filled with is Holy Spirit, that His glory shall be revealed in me.

I accept His predetermined plan for my life.

I am a believer.

I am a receiver of all His blessings.

I will honor God in my living.

I will honor God in my giving.

I will honor God in my attendance.

I shall be blessed in such a way, that all will know that I pay my tithes honestly and consistently.

I will avoid being cursed and avoid bringing a curse upon myself as well as my household.

I will lift my hands in adoration.

I will offer unto Him a sacrifice of praise.

I will worship Him in this sanctuary.

I will raise my voice in praise.

I will bless the Lord at all times and His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

Be Encouraged

LADIES OF EXCELLENCE

I didn't know what to write about for the women, but as I prayed asking the Lord what to write, I could only hear to encourage them. So, I know no words can encourage you like the Word of God! I searched the scriptures and I pray that as you read them that they will bless you in the area(s) you need them.

Remember Ladies, we need each other; we cannot make this journey by ourselves. The Bible says in Galatians 6:3, "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." We need one another, no matter how strong or independent we may feel, as we keep living, life will show us the words of Hezekiah Walker's song, "I need you, you need me; we are all a part of God's body." We can make it as we continue to do it together. Be encourage!

Scriptures of Encouragement:

- ◆ Hang in there - Proverbs 3:5-6; James 1:2-3
- ◆ Don't give up. - Matthew 24:13; Galatians 6:9
- ◆ Keep pushing. - P.U.S.H. - Luke 18:1-8
- ◆ Keep fighting! - I Timothy 6:12; II Timothy 4:7; Psalm 46:1-3
- ◆ Stay strong - Ephesians 6:10-17; Nehemiah 8:10
- ◆ Always Pray - I Thessalonians 5:17; Ephesians 6:18; I Timothy 2:8
- ◆ Come on! - Philippians 4:13; Matthew 19:26; Romans 8:37

TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH

Holiday Health and Safety Tips

The month of December is a joyful time of year, for “Jesus is the reason for the season.” (Luke 2:11). It is flu season, so keep in mind that you can enjoy the holidays more by putting your health and safety first. Take steps to maintain your family's health, safety, and readiness for the holiday season. Here are some suggestions to assist you this season.

1. Frequently wash your hands to help stop the transmission of germs. Wash your hands with soap and clean running water for at least 20 seconds.
2. Prepare food safely. Remember these simple steps: Wash hands and surfaces often, avoid cross-contamination, cook food to proper temperatures and refrigerate foods promptly.
3. Eat healthy, stay active. Eat fruits and vegetables which pack nutrients and help lower the risk for certain diseases. Limit your portion sizes and foods high in fat, salt, and sugar. Also, be active for at least 2½ hours a week and help kids and teens be active for at least 1 hour a day.
4. Bundle up to stay dry and warm. Wear appropriate outdoor clothing: light, warm layers, gloves, hats, scarves, and waterproof boots.
5. Avoid secondhand smoke. Smokers have greater health risks because of their tobacco use.
6. Get your vaccinations. Vaccinations help prevent diseases and save lives. Everyone 6 months and older should get a flu vaccine each year.
7. Practice fire safety. Most residential fires occur during the winter months, so don't leave fireplaces, space heaters, food cooking on stoves, or candles unattended. Have an emergency plan and practice it regularly.

Above all, don't forget to Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say, rejoice. (Philippians 4:4)

FELLOWSHIP SERVICE

On October 15th, Kingdom Church and Ministries traveled to Calvary Pentecostal Church in Bishopville, MD to help them celebrate 65 years of ministry. Associate Pastor Christopher preached during this milestone service. The choir sang and we had an great time in the Lord.

MONEY MATTERS

Financial Planning

Financial planning is not a one-time process. Financial plans should start day one once you have begun to receive an income. Educate yourself about managing your money and investing. You could watch financial videos and read financial books. You could also consider using professional resources as well. Protect your savings and avoid any mistakes that could derail your financial future and dreams. Learn how to turn your dreams into reality. The key is to have a clear plan. Make your plan and stay focused, determined and dedicated to your dreams and goals. Don't let life events prevent you from staying on the target. Learn to live on less money to save more money. Remember, you will determine the size of your nest egg. No matter your age, it's never too early or too late to start your financial planning. The secret is to always increase your savings.

Let's get started.

Following is a guide to build a personal financial plan.

1. Pray: Seek God for all adventures.
2. Set Financial Goals: It's good to have a clear idea of why you are saving your hard-earned money.
3. Build an Emergency Fund: All the planning in the world won't help if life throws you a curveball and you are not prepared.
4. Managing Debt: Understanding and managing debt is a key part of creating your plan.
5. Protect with Insurance: Life can change in an instant so plan for the unexpected. Invest in disability and life insurance.
6. Plan for Retirement: Even if it's a long way off, think about what you want your money to do for you when you retire.
7. Invest Beyond Your 401K: Learn to invest, to reach your mid- and long-term goals, take your saving strategy and put an engine behind it. save as much as you can when it's possible.
8. Pray All through your plans, you're investing and you're saving.

Through all financial endeavors, praise God for what He has given and for what He has promised you to come!!
